WANTED: ONE QUEEN . . . Some local lovely may ride this gorgeous float in the famed Pasadena Rose Parade on Jan. 2. The lucky girl will be selected as the "Queen of Liberty" in a nationwide competition. The five finalists will be flown to Hollywood for a week's free vacation and will appear on Jack Bailey's nationwide "Queen for a Day" radio show. Any single girl is eligible for the contest. Entry blanks and details of the competition are available at 2515 Torrance Blvd., in Torrance.

country will be selected to appear on the Dec. 29 "Queen For A Day" radio-TV show, when the "Queen of Liberty" is chosen. The contest closes Dec. 18. Entry blanks for the contest are available at 2515 Torrance Blvd. To enter the contest, a girl need only fill out the blank and send it, together with a photograph of herself, to "Queen For A Day," Hollywood 28, Calif.

All finalists will be flown to Hollywood for an expense-paid week's vacation. In addition to appearing on the "Queen For A Day" show, nationally broadcast over the Mutual network, they will view the colorful Rose Parade and Rose Bowl football classic, enjoy a week's whirl of the film capital's studios and be entertained at Hollywood's most glamorous night spots.

Special Honors
The winner of the contest will have the special honor of being enthroned as "Queen of Liberty" on the flower-decked Snow Crop float in the Rose Parade, which is nationally telecast over the NBC network and viewed by a total audience of nearly twenty million persons. The "Queen of Liberty" will also make numerous appearances on radio and television, receive a complete new wardrobe and many other prizes and gifts.

made of white chrysanthemums. On either side of the ribbon, garlands of roses, vanda orchids, sweetpeas, cornflowers, carnations, chrysanthemums and a d.p. pompos, represent the flowers of America. Symbolizing the beauty of America, the "Queen of Liberty" will be enthroned in the midst of this splendor.

Garage Burglarized
Two hammers, tin snips, and a 20-pound keg of nails were stolen from his garage at 25340 Oak St., Lomita, John W. Bebbington told sheriff's deputies Friday. The thieves pried the lock off the door to gain entrance, he said.

Christmas Decorations Ignored, Women 'Come As They Are'

By VERA C. WRIGHT
FR 2-2288
Mrs. R. Torrence, of 18305 Roslin Avenue, held the first of a series of pre-holiday "come as you are" breakfasts for her immediate neighbors.

Underneath the robes, curlers, cold cream, and pigtails could be seen the faces of Mrs. Sarah Hooker, Mrs. Gloria Hernandez, Mrs. Vernon Burch, Mrs. Paul Herring, Mrs. Glen Runsted, Mrs. Maurice Wisdom, Miss Terry Torrence and Masters Michael Torrence and David Reed Hooker.

The lovely Christmas decorations were ignored as the ladies tried to distinguish one another.

The address to go is 18321 Roslin Avenue if you are looking for new ideas on painting, as Mrs. Maurice Wisdom has been putting all her ideas on her interior decorating.

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Roger Blackmore who are visiting here from their home in Chicago, a dinner and theater was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Foster in Hollywood.

Mrs. H. Scott and daughter, Patty Jane, have entrusted to San Francisco where Mrs. Scott's mother, Mrs. S. Bald will celebrate her 89th birthday.

She will join other sisters and brothers, six in all, who have traveled from various states to help their mother celebrate her birthday.

Those parents scurrying to the Carl Steele School last Thursday were eagerly seeking to become charter members of the newly organized Carl Steele Elementary Parent Teacher Assn. One hundred and thirty persons were present to see Mrs. Donald Crockett installed as the first president of the Carl Steele P.T.A.

Among those hosting the most elegant soirees these past few weeks are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Downs and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hill whose progressive parties lasted from sunset to dawn.

The Casa Toluca was the scene of a cocktail and dinner party hosted by Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams to celebrate Mr. and Mrs. James Hastings' third wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Yokoyama and family, of 3901 W. 182nd Street, were among the many families which ventured to the Civic Auditorium last Wednesday to view the girls youth activities.

Girl Scout Troop 867 will celebrate Christmas at a party given for them by the members of the scout mothers club on Dec. 21. The girls have been busily trying to finish the many Christmas presents they are making for their parents.

Mrs. Jack Kelley, of 19211 Burin Avenue, is the latest of the community's matrons to prepare for the holidays with a completely new hair-do.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Baile, of 4222 West 17th Street, were overjoyed with the latest of the Civic Auditorium last Wednesday. Capt. Steele of Georgia, Capt. Steele is Mrs. Baile's brother who had just returned from Korea and he is now stationed in Arkansas. Incidentally, her four brothers assembled together in Missouri for Thanksgiving dinner for the first time in five years and since she was unable to join them, they phoned her. Betty was able to speak to all four of her brothers.

The loss of weight is very becoming to Mrs. Ira Hon who now wears a size 18, and doesn't care who knows it.
